Day Loses Move To Stop Vote On Street Cars

Application to Quash City Resolution Calling For Ballot Dismissed

Statute Run Out

Application of John Day for an order to quash the city's resolution calling for a by-law vote on its proposed agreement with the B.C. Electric for continuation of the street car service was dismissed by Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court Chambers this morning.

The judge stated he had studied the issue as set forth in the notice yesterday and had found the statute on which the application was based had run out. Clause in it, giving the city power to enter into an agreement with the company, had been substituted by the powers conferred upon the city by an amendment to the Municipal Act last year, he said.

Judgment was given without presentation of the city's or the B.C. Electric's case. Frank Higgins, K.C., representing Mr. Day, was the sole counsel to address the court on the question. Appearing for the city were H. A. Maclean, K.C., and F. L. Shaw, and for the B.C. Electric, Senator J. W. deB. Farris, K.C., W. A. Riddell, A. D. King and Ralph Matthews.

Mr. Higgins contended the Victoria City Act of 1920 constituted a prohibition against further agreements between the city and the B.C. Electric Railway Company after December 5, 1938. He sought to argue further the position of the company in relation to its franchise to operate here. Senator Farris objected to that line of argument and informed the court the notice of the application had been such and the city was prepared to argue solely on the 1920 act.

JUDGMENT GIVEN

Mr. Justice Murphy stated the act had given the City of Victoria special powers to enter into agreements with the company, but qualified them by saying they would cease on December 5, 1938.

On December 5 last year those powers had come to an end and the city was without any power at all in the matter. To overcome that the legislature had at the last session given Victoria power to make the agreement in question, he held.

The judge did not direct his attention to the question of making an agreement without a vote of the ratepayers. That point had not been raised in the notice of motion, he added.

The by-law amendment passed last year was subclause 129 B, Section 59, Chapter 199 of the Municipal Act.

The order sought unsuccessfully by Mr. Higgins for Mr. Day was one to quash the resolution passed by the City Council on March 29, by which a vote of property owners was ordered for April 13 on a draft agreement embodying terms for the continuation of the street car system here.

Britain Ready Now With 4,000 First Line Planes

London May Suffer, But Attackers Doomed, New Analysis Shows

'Counterpuncher'

NEW YORK—Britain today has 4,000 first-line fighting planes and is rushing production of between 5,000 and 6,000 more, according to an analysis of British military strength written by Quentin Reynolds, associate editor of Collier's, and published today under the title "England Won't Lose." After talking with both governmental and military leaders of Great Britain, Reynolds sums up the British defence situation as follows:

"That London will suffer and suffer horribly in the next war is, of course, a certainty. That thousands of her noncombatant citizens will be killed and maimed during the first few weeks is too obvious a fact for London to ignore. It must be remembered that London will have only about ten minutes warning of an air attack, if Germany is the aggressor. German bombers will take off from the Frisian Islands, north of Holland, only 350 miles from London.

"With any luck German bombers will be able to arrive over England before being sighted. The alarm will be given and interceptive British fighters must take to the air, climb to perhaps 25,000 feet, all within the ten minutes that it will take the German bombers to fly the 50 miles from the coast to London.

"There is no doubt that the bombers will have dropped many of their eggs before the fighters are in a position to engage them. They won't have time to aim them; they'll drop them upon the just and the unjust alike. Once the fighters get into the same air level as the bombers, the mortality among the latter should be great, and if the English fighters can destroy the greater part of each attacking squadron, they are doing all that one can hope for.

"Six months ago there was no hope that a defending air force could accomplish anything like this. Today there is. Every day of peace gives London an advantage. Thousands of men are working grimly in factories while thousands of others are working just as grimly learning the business of flying in this fantastic battle against time.

Reynolds states that London also has available the best anti-aircraft guns ever made—a three-inch gun with a range of 25,000 feet, a 3.7-inch gun with a ceiling of 30,000 feet, a four-inch semi-automatic that fires 18 30-pound shells per minute, a two-pounder automatic which pumps 200 shells a minute, and a new 4.5 which is said to be the most efficient high-angle gun of its size in the world.

"England is a counterpuncher," Reynolds writes. "Germany, by reason of geographic advantages, will be the aggressor. England will try to checkmate her with defensive air manoeuvres. England is sure to lose the first air battle because countries no longer go through the formality of declaring war. They just wind up and throw a punch. Germany's first punch is going to be a hard right to the heart—the heart of England, which is London.

"Germany's terrible confidence in her own air force appears to me to be hardly justified. There is a little word called Ersatz which is going to loom very big in any war. Ersatz is the process of substituting artificial for basic material. The Germans have been clever at it, but it is known that the German tractors and tanks which lumbered into Vienna when Germany occupied it broke down in a most disheartening way. The Ersatz materials used in the motors, wheels and

HOPES NIEMOELLER MAY BE RELEASED

Many Wish Hitler Also Will Free Schuschnigg, But No Communiqué

BERLIN (AP)—Admirers and supporters of Germany's two best known prisoners—the outspoken parson, Martin Niemöller, and the former Austrian Chancellor, Kurt von Schuschnigg—looked forward hopefully today to Chancellor Hitler's 50th birthday, April 20.

REV. M. NIEMOELLER

All hoped that, in the outpouring of sentiment which is expected to characterize that day, there might be word from the Fuehrer which would open the gates of the Sachsenhausen camp for Niemöller and free the one-time Chancellor, in custody since the Austrian Anschluss March 13, 1938.

There has been no official word, however, of a forthcoming amnesty.

Niemöller was accused of attacking leaders of the state and using the pulpit improperly.

The Gestapo took Von Schuschnigg into custody for "his own safety" and held him in his home for a time, then removed him to a two-room suite in the Metropole Hotel, Vienna Gestapo headquarters.

SEATTLE JOBLESS GET 20 CENTS DAILY

Officials Move to End Problem Though Source Of Funds Not Clear

SEATTLE (AP)—City and county officials ordered food allowances of 20 cents a day for jobless single men today to meet a "relief crisis" resulting from curtailment of state aid and unemployment in King County (Seattle).

"Vouchers will be given out immediately, though we don't know yet where the money is coming from," said County Commissioner Tom Smith.

The commissioner declared there were at present 20,000 persons in King County without food or shelter as result of the curtailments.

Officials said the temporary grants would continue until April 30, and a single men's dormitory, previously ordered closed, would remain open until that date. Several hundred men have conducted a "sleep-in" strike there since last Saturday, defying closing orders.

troops failed to live up to expectations.

"Today, Germany would probably win the first two months of any war, and then need would come for mechanical replacements. This will entail Ersatz and tanks which lumbered into Vienna when Germany occupied it broke down in a most disheartening way. The Ersatz materials used in the motors, wheels and

Journalists Criticize Action Of Chamberlain

British Newspapermen Score Suppression of Stanhope's Speech

Draft Resolution

BRISTOL, Eng. (AP)—Delegates of the National Union of Journalists announced today an "emergency resolution" would be moved when the full conference meets, criticizing Prime Minister Chamberlain for attempting to suppress Earl Stanhope's speech Tuesday night.

The resolution says in part: "The annual delegates' meeting consider the action of the Prime Minister, if not challenged by public opinion, would establish a principle which constitutes a grave inroad into the freedom of the press."

PREMIER SPEAKS

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain for the second time defended in the House of Commons today his action in seeking to suppress the "man-the-guns" speech of Earl Stanhope as some London newspapers demanded the First Lord of the Admiralty resign.

The Prime Minister said he had tried to suppress the speech because "it appeared to me to be likely to convey the impression to the public and, perhaps, not only to the public of this country, that we were at that moment expecting some surprise attack on our ships."

Mr. Chamberlain said he regretted that a "dad"—for danger—notice had been used to gain support of British papers in suppressing the speech, but added: "Looking back on the circumstances I still think that if they were repeated I should do the same thing."

The matter was raised by Dingle Mackintosh Foot, Labor, who suggested the Prime Minister had enough to do without worrying about "what is or is not likely to shock us over the breakfast table."

Premier Lyons Critically Ill

Australian Cabinet Head Patient In Sydney Hospital

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Grave anxiety for the life of Prime Minister Joseph A. Lyons was expressed Thursday by the deputy Prime Minister, Sir Earle Page.

Sir Earle said Mr. Lyons was suffering from a complication of ailments after a serious heart attack. A bulletin said the Prime Minister's condition was "very desperate."

Archbishop John Panico, Catholic apostolic delegate to Australia, was summoned to the Prime Minister's bedside in the hospital as specialists urgently conferred on his condition.

The 60-year-old cabinet head entered a hospital last Tuesday with what was described as a "bad case of grippe." Complications set in last night.

Mrs. Lyons rushed here by airplane from Tasmania after she had been informed of her husband's illness.

The official bulletin today said: "The Prime Minister's condition is still exceedingly serious. He has again been seen by Sir Charles Blackburn in consultation with Dr. Dierholm. His condition is still very desperate. Dame Lyons and members of his family kept a vigil at the hospital all day."

Recruiting in Vacation

LONDON (AP)—The British War Office hopes to get a big influx of army recruits during the Easter vacation.

Each of 10,000 officers and men who started a four-day Easter leave today from Aldershot, Britain's biggest military centre, was promised four shillings (approximately $1) and three days' extra leave for every acceptable recruit brought in during the vacation.

Italian Warships Dispatched to Port Of Albania

Cruiser and Destroyers At Durazzo Add to South Europe's Tension

Britain Watches

TIRANA (AP)—An Italian cruiser and two destroyers arrived at Durazzo, Albania, today as Albania feverishly discussed reports of an imminent Italian occupation.

Many Albanian reservists have been mobilized. Twenty truckloads of arms were sent yesterday to Valona, southern port of Albania.

There was some feeling in diplomatic circles the Albanian government might try to resist any landing of Italian troops.

There was a distinct possibility, however, the government might on the other hand find a formula under which Italian occupation would be accepted.

People in the streets freely expressed their desire to resist any military occupation.

Plane service from Tirana to Italy was canceled. Practically all Italians in Albania had returned to Italy.

Negotiations between Albania and Italy, ostensibly toward strengthening of the 1927 defensive alliance between the two countries, have been going on for several days.

King Zog, after the birth of an heir to the throne yesterday, conferred nearly five hours with his cabinet.

The tense situation cast gloom over the national celebrations of the birth of a crown prince to Zog and Queen Geraldine.

WATCHED BY LONDON

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain said in the House of Commons today Great Britain was maintaining a close watch on the Albanian situation. The Albanian authorities, he added, had assured Britain they would accept no conditions "incompatible with their sovereignty or national integrity."

"I have just learned that an Italian cruiser and two smaller warships arrived at Durazzo early this morning," said Mr. Chamberlain.

Asked whether the British government had interests in Albania, the Prime Minister said: "No direct interest, but we have a general interest in the peace of the world."

SEEN AS WARNING

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Well-informed sources here today said the impending Italian military occupation of Albania was meant as a warning to both Yugoslavia and Greece to stay out of the Anglo-French anti-aggression bloc.

Italy's action may involve only the occupation of Albania's coastline for the purpose of hermetically sealing the Adriatic, the same source asserted.

NAZI ROUND-UP IN BUENOS AIRES

Police Break Up Parade of 300 and Put 14 in Jail

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Swinging police clubs today broke up a parade of 300 persons marching with posters saying: "Viva Hitler, Viva Mussolini, Viva Franco." Fourteen persons were arrested and one sent to a hospital with a scalp wound.

The demonstrators attempted to march down the brilliant Avenida de Mayo on the offices of the Liberal newspaper, Critica, after a German Nazi leader had been arraigned and a cabaret dancer questioned in the government's investigation into charges of a plot for the annexation of Patagonia by Germany.

Alfred Mueller, chief Nazi agent in Argentina, formally was charged with exposing the nation to a threat of war and attempting to threaten the sovereignty of the nation.

His arraignment by Federal Judge Miguel Jantus, who has taken personal charge of the investigation ordered by President Roberto Ortiz, resulted from 16 hours of steady questioning.

Mueller's arrest came after Enrique Juegas, a disaffected Nazi, in a letter to the President March 20 had charged German political agents plotted the annexation by Adolf Hitler of the sparsely settled, 295,000 square mile tip of South America.

Poland Pledges Aid to Britain

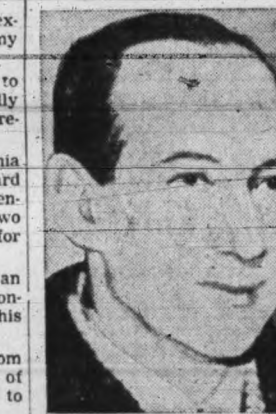

Threat to Freedom of Either Would Bring Armies of Both Into Field, Says Chamberlain

By J. F. SANDERSON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON—Anglo-Polish relations will be placed on a permanent treaty basis with each country pledging military assistance to the other if attacked, Prime Minister Chamberlain announced in the House of Commons today.

"The conversations with M. Beck (Polish foreign minister, who is now in London), have covered a wide field and have shown that the two governments are in complete agreement on certain general principles," said Mr. Chamberlain. "It was agreed the two countries were prepared to enter into an agreement of a permanent and reciprocal character to replace the present temporary and unilateral assurance given by His Majesty's government to the Polish government."

JOSEF BECK

"Pending completion of a permanent agreement, Col. Beck gave an assurance that the Polish government would consider themselves under an obligation to render assistance to His Majesty's government under the same conditions as those in the temporary assurance already given by His Majesty's government to Poland."

"The permanent agreement will be designed to assure Great Britain and Poland of mutual assistance in the event of any threat, direct or indirect, to the independence of either."

"Like the temporary assurance, the permanent agreement will not be directed against any other country."

"It was understood that the arrangements mentioned should not preclude either government from making agreements with other countries in the general interest of consolidation of peace."

The Prime Minister said certain precise details would have to be worked out before the agreement could take final form. It

DUCE AT AIRPORT ON ADRIATIC

Makes Flying Visit And Reviews Recruits But Makes No Speech

ROME (AP)—Premier Mussolini flew early this morning to the military airport of Jesi, near the Adriatic seaport of Ancona, where he reviewed planes and new recruits.

The Premier piloted a trimotored bomber to the airport near a point that overlooks the sea toward Albania as rumors of an impending Italian military occupation of the little Balkan country ran through Europe.

Il Duce appeared on a balcony at Jesi after inspecting the airport and saluted the crowd, but did not make a speech.

The communique announcing his visit laid no emphasis on the military phase of his fast trip, which struck foreign observers as important in view of the uncertain situation between Italy and Albania.

He took off at 10.15 a.m. and notwithstanding the bad weather over the Apennines reached the Littorio airport at Rome, a 130-mile hop, at 11.10 a.m.

Italy Expelling French

PARIS (CPHavas)—The Petit Parisien, Independent, today reported in a dispatch from Nice that Italian army officers had ordered 50 French peasants in the Isola area on the Italian side of the French frontier to quit the territory before April 16 and leave their houses intact.

Britain Reports Members of Nazi Secret Police

Action Already Against 3 Germans And Others to Follow

Commons Informed

LONDON (CP)—The government is taking steps to deport from Britain members of the German secret police and other Nazi organizations.

Informing the House of Commons of this today, Sir Samuel Hoare, Home Secretary, stated that within recent weeks the government had taken action against three members of Nazi organizations.

The Secretary made his announcement after Labor members had declared agents of the Gestapo were terrorizing Germans working in Britain by telling them their relatives in Germany would be punished unless they sent part of their earnings home. Sir Samuel requested any information members possessed substantiating activities of German secret police.

One member asked whether any Nazi agents enjoyed diplomatic immunity—a suggestion that some members of the German diplomatic corps might be dealing with espionage—but Sir Samuel replied: "The answer is no."

WRITERS SUSPECTED

It is known British officials are suspicious of a number of German journalists assigned to cover Whitehall. Some 40 German newspapermen work in London and in the opinion of British officials three or four could handle the news transmitted from here for use in the German controlled press.

On several occasions British officials have considered reducing the number of German newspapermen to bring it down to the number of British reporters covering the German capital.

NO INTERVIEWS BY GOEBBELS IN EGYPT

Premier Asks German Minister Be Silent During Day's Visit

CAIRO (AP)—Germany's propaganda minister, Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, arrived today for a 24-hour visit in Egypt and promptly was given a request from Egyptian Prime Minister Mohamed Mahmoud Pasha he should not make press statements while here.

The request was made through the German charge d'affaires, with whom the prime minister had a long talk prior to Goebbels' arrival by airplane from the Italian island of Rhodes, off the Turkish coast.

Mahmoud Pasha was said to have based his request on the ground of "the large foreign communities and complexity of races in Egypt."

Officials denied persistent reports Goebbels had been refused permission to fly over fortified Egyptian desert areas.

(In Rome the newspaper Il Piccolo in a Rhodes dispatch quoted Goebbels as saying peace would be of long duration if "the legitimate and justified" aspirations of the "have-not" nations chiefly Germany and Italy were satisfied. That dispatch said Goebbels had been refused permission to fly over certain Egyptian territory.)

Jewish Migrants Protected

REICHENBERG, Germany (AP)—Sudetan Nazi Leader Konrad Henlein's newspaper Die Zeit reported today a trainload of Jewish emigrants left Vienna for Palestine Wednesday with the doors and windows of the coaches sealed.

The paper said the seals were ordered because Jews jeered and shouted as the train was prepared for departure.

French May Day Canceled

PARIS (AP)—The national executive committee of the General Confederation of Labor voted today to cancel the annual 24-hour nation-wide cessation of work on May Day. No reason was given for the cancellation. May Day celebrations in the past occasionally have developed into leftist demonstrations.

The Trades and Labor Council last night gave unanimous support to a resolution from the Street Railwaymen's Union urging continuation of street cars in Victoria. Several delegates spoke to the resolution endorsing the stand of the street railwaymen.

Firemen of Victoria have been turned down by the Trades Congress of Canada in their request for a Canadian charter which would enable them to affiliate with the trades council, it was reported at the meeting. At present Victoria and Vancouver firemen are associated through their own organizations but they have no national or international affiliation.

E. Belton, secretary, reported organization of retail clerks was proceeding in the city and already several stores had been signed up 100 per cent.

It was also reported the organization of the women's auxiliary was proceeding rapidly.

WALLS WITH LUNGS LATEST IN BUILDING

New System Prevents Paint Cracking; Sulphur Highways Described

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, Associated Press Science Editor
 BALTIMORE—A new type of home construction which puts "lungs" in the outside walls was reported to the American Chemical Society here yesterday.

The device, for frame houses, is made to save the paint. Thin air spaces are built in just underneath the outside boards.

While they permit circulation of air like lungs, their real work is like that of kidneys, to take moisture out of the walls. This wetness, unable to escape into the house, now comes out through the outside boards, and in so doing ruins the paint.

A survey showed this trouble attacks half of the houses in the northeastern United States.

Pope to Make Peace Appeal at Easter

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Pope has decided to read a declaration at the Easter service in St. Peter's Sunday which is expected to be a renewed appeal to the world for peace.

The Vatican announced the homily in Latin would be read by the Pontiff after the Gospel.

Arrangements have been made by the Vatican radio station to broadcast the message along with the rest of the Easter ceremony on a wavelength of 31.06 metres.

The service will begin after 10 a.m. (1 a.m. P.S.T.) and last until noon, when the Pope will impart his benediction to a crowd in St. Peter's Square from the balcony of the Basilica.

Britain Continues to Sell War Materials to Reich

LONDON (AP)—The government will not act to halt the selling of British firms to Germany of materials the Reich could use in its rearmament program, Richard Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, told questioners in the House of Commons yesterday.

The refusal to act was based on the theory positive action "would constitute, in effect, a form of sanction, imposition of which is no part of the British government's policy," Mr. Butler said.

BRISTOL ENGINES FOUND SUITABLE

OTTAWA (CP)—Flying tests under all kinds of winter conditions have been carried out on Bristol Aircraft engines during the past three winters by the British and Canadian air forces. Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Defence, announced in the House of Commons yesterday in comment on a Winnipeg Free Press editorial of April 3 which cast doubt on suitability of Bristol engines for Canadian winter conditions.

A report by the chief of the Canadian air staff on the results of those tests pronounced Bristol engines "entirely satisfactory" under cold weather conditions, the minister said.

The Free Press editorial had suggested Bristol engines were not as suitable to Canadian conditions as some other makes and had cited the fact the Imperial Airways flying boat Cavalier, which recently was forced down and lost in the Atlantic between Bermuda and New York, had been powered with four Bristol engines.

Technical reports had suggested difficulties due to an iced carburetor.

was a question primarily of installation.

As to the price Canada was paying for Bristol machines, about which a question had previously been asked, Mr. Mackenzie said the confidential relationship existing between the British Air Ministry and the Bristol Aeroplane Company, "being virtually that of a qualified partnership," precluded disclosure of the price.

Former Priest Joins Presbyterians

TORONTO (CP)—The application of a Roman Catholic priest to enter the Presbyterian Church was approved at a meeting of the Toronto Presbytery yesterday. An hour later the meeting rejected the application of a United Church minister.

Rev. R. G. Stuart, presbytery moderator, said the Roman Catholic application was approved because the priest was bringing his congregation with him. Neither the priest nor the congregation was named. The United Church minister, on the other hand, was applying for an appointment and there were no vacancies, Mr. Stuart added.

"There is something seriously wrong somewhere," said Rev. J. B. Skene, presbytery clerk. "I see no reason why we should accept the application of the Roman Catholic and refuse that of the United Church minister."

Poland's Position Clear

GREAT BRITAIN AND POLAND, AS A result of the visit to London of Polish Foreign Minister Colonel Joseph Beck, will enter into an agreement of a permanent and reciprocal character to replace the present temporary unilateral assurance given by the British government to the Polish government last week. This means that each country will render military assistance to the other "in the event of any threat, direct or indirect, to the independence of either." Prime Minister Chamberlain read his statement to the British House of Commons this afternoon and explained that while "the two governments are in complete agreement upon certain general principles"—the main one, of course, being that of the pledge of military co-operation against an aggressor—"a more precise definition of various ways in which necessity for such assistance might arise would require further examination before a permanent agreement could be completed." Nothing in the final document, however, will preclude either government from making agreements with other countries "in the general interest of consolidation of peace."

Mr. Chamberlain's statement—drawn up in collaboration with and its text approved by Colonel Beck—would appear to have cleared the international atmosphere as far as the extent Poland and Great Britain are concerned with any designs Reichsfuehrer Hitler may have on Polish or British territory. It will quite probably produce another anti-British and anti-Polish outburst in the controlled Nazi press—which is the business of the Berlin oligarchy. The main point which the London conversations have established, however, is that Europe as a whole now knows that if, for example, the head of the German Reich shall order his troops to march on Poland, or indirectly threaten the independence of that country, he will have to reckon with the armed might of Great Britain—and other countries which are determined to halt the "Mein Kampf" program.

For some months past, of course, Poland has been regarded as a European enigma, the great unpredictable in world affairs. But it was Gilbert Chesterton who once said that "if the World War should have had no other effect than the rebirth of Poland as an independent nation, it would have been justified on that account." This may be a sweeping statement, but it is not altogether without justification. The original carving up of a great nation with its distinctive unit—its own living language—among three greedy neighbors, is almost incredible in history. It had then 8,000,000 Poles; but when it was re-established after the war it counted no fewer than 20,000,000 Poles. The present state has 32,000,000 subjects, but there are large minorities who are not Poles at all.

Poland lies on one of the routes to the goal which Herr Hitler obviously has set for himself; and it must be remembered that he has not yet abandoned any of his original foreign objectives, though he has added to them. But he naturally will now, more than at anytime since he brought about Anschluss with Austria, consider the military obstacles which stand in the way of his eastern drive. The Poles are a traditionally proud race. They are not easily bullied. Military critics have a high regard for both Polish officer and Polish soldier. It is true there are few good communications in Poland; the army nevertheless has an extraordinarily natural mobility which, in the past, has overcome many transport difficulties that would embarrass, and even frustrate, most European land forces. It is to be noted, too, that the Polish soldier is not greatly dependent on first-class food; he will fight hard on what a British soldier would call a "snack."

It is common knowledge that one of Poland's chief weaknesses is the uncertain reaction of some of her minorities. But it would appear that Colonel Beck's agreement with Prime Minister Chamberlain suggests he does not anticipate trouble in this direction. The Polish Foreign Secretary, of course, for some time has had each one of his long legs dangling in a different camp. But back of his hesitating policy, his temporary lukewarmness to France, his personal antagonism toward Communism, is the knowledge that the rise of Nazi Germany has created a new Polish problem. And the treaty with France is still intact. Friendly relations have been maintained between Warsaw and Moscow as well as between Warsaw and Berlin. The new accord with Great Britain, therefore, may well be the turning point in European affairs.

Easter Date

EASTER'S SHIFTING DATE, WHICH causes so much confusion to calendar makers and even more trouble to milliners and modistes, is due to the awkwardness of trying to fit a lunar date into a solar year. Since the lunar month is always 28 days, as contrasted with the 30 or 31 of most solar months, it is not to be wondered at that the date keeps skipping around.

As we shall hear this Sunday in all the churches, the first Easter came to pass because Jesus, going up to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover, was seized and put to death, "and on the third day He arose again." In its origin, therefore, the Christian Easter was keyed to one particular Jewish Passover, and the Passover has always been a lunar date. Although differences in reckoning permit Easter and Passover to be separated most of the time now, they always do come within a few weeks of each other.

The method of determining the date of Easter was fixed upon by the Council of Nicaea in the year 325 A.D. It comes upon the first Sunday following the full moon on or after March 21. Thus Easter may come as early as March 22, as it did last in 1818, or as late as April 25, as will be the case in 1943. The different Easter date of the Greek Orthodox and other Oriental Christian churches is due principally to their refusal to adopt the Gregorian calendar, long in common use in the West for both ecclesiastical and civil reckonings.

In connection with the recurrent discussion of a further reform in the calendar, it is proposed to give Easter a fixed date, and the Vatican, as well as various Protestant church authorities, can see no reason why such a proceeding should not be considered. Christmas was given a fixed date on the solar calendar long ago by church action, so the fixing of the second great feast of the church would not be without precedent.

Personal Contact

WHEN BUYER AND SELLER TALK business face to face there is a great deal more likelihood of an order being placed and booked than if negotiations are carried on at long range. We get an idea of the value of "personal contact" in a small paragraph which appeared the other day. It reported that Sir William Pirbright, the Welsh tinplate chief, had just returned to England from the United States and that he had a $25,000,000 order in his pocket; on the strength of which he will reopen eight South Wales tinplate mills.

There is nothing like the "direct approach" method of doing business. Our friends in the neighboring republic have followed this principle for several years. It has paid them well. Canadian exporters have begun to realize they must pursue the same policy. A little bit of individual effort is worth a good deal more than government subsidy in the long run. British Columbia's lumbermen improved their trade with the Old World mainly because they organized to extend it. And it did not take the province's Minister of Finance long to persuade the New York "moneybags" the other day that they would be making no mistake in lending him $3,000,000 at 3½ per cent.

Interesting Figures

ACCORDING TO THE SOVIET NEWS-paper Pravda, the peace-time strength of the Russian army is given as 1,800,000 men and a war strength at 11,000,000. The figures were taken from a German military magazine, but the fact that they are published in Russian without comment indicates that the Soviet government is not anxious to deny that they are correct. Russia, according to the article, increased the number of its war planes from 6,000 to 9,000 between the years 1936 and 1938. The last official figures issued by the Soviet government several years ago revealed merely the 1,300,000 peace-time strength of the Red Army and "thousands of airplanes and tanks." Other figures published from Washington, incidentally, credit Russia with 18,000,000 trained reserves, while the number of fighting planes she possesses is anybody's guess.

CANADA'S ECONOMIC ROLE

From Ottawa Citizen

Canada, according to Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, will never become densely populated. Therefore, he told the Ottawa Canadian Club, our "economy" should never be designed with the idea of having the entire production absorbed by the home market. Rather, Canada's economic role was that of producer for the more thickly populated countries.

This interpretation of Canada's present and future economic position is held by a good many Canadians. Perhaps Mr. Gardiner is right. In any case, no economist of authority has ever suggested that the "entire production" of the country should be consumed internally. What is being urged, however, is an economic system which will permit Canadians to consume to the limit of their requirements and that the surplus be exported in return for needed goods not produced here.

When Mr. Gardiner declares that Canada should be producer for the thickly populated countries, what countries has he in mind? Is he fitting his economic thinking into the economic policies of the government he adorns, or has he thought the matter out?

On this matter of exporting to the populous lands, it happens that only a few days ago the United States Minister of Agriculture, Secretary Wallace, had something to say. Mr. Wallace stated that the European market, which in the 1920's "took the products of 50,000,000 acres of American farm land," is "gone forever." It is "gone forever" from Canada, too, and the plight of western wheat-growers seems to prove it. Secretary Wallace says there are two possible ways of dealing with the new situation. One is to find some markets for United States products in the New World. The other—the one on which he sets greater store—is to increase home consumption by a new price system.

Canadian statesmen may possibly have to come to a similar solution. If only the 900,000 on urban and agricultural relief in Canada were enabled to consume to the extent of their reasonable needs, the present problem of distributing the country's surplus would be solved in part.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

STATESMAN

SOMETIMES THE ELECTORATE, as has been remarked before, is peculiar. Sometimes, indeed, it makes you despair of democracy. Note, for example, the phenomenon of Mr. Dewey, in the United States. Mr. Dewey is a young man who has distinguished himself as a choral singer and as a prosecutor who sends New York gangsters to jail. Both these are interesting occupations and likely to catch the public imagination equally.

The American democracy is so impressed by the fairy-tale success of the young prosecutor of gangsters that it wants to make Mr. Dewey President. He leads all straw votes for the Republican nomination. He may well sit in the White House in a couple of years. And, though he might make the best President ever known, there is nothing in his record to show that he should even be a congressman.

Prosecuting gangsters is no training for a President. One can't imagine anything worse. But it is glamorous and the public loves it. It always wants to elect a hero, and usually the heroes, like Grant, were the worst Presidents in history.

The public everywhere, including Canada, has the notion that because a man is a good lawyer, a good green grocer, a good fishmonger or a good millionaire, he would be fine in politics. That is why you get so many bad politicians. Some day we shall learn that politics is not a job for a man in his declining years, when he is too old for anything else, but the most difficult profession known, requiring years of training and experience. Meanwhile we shall get choral singers and police court prosecutors because they have sex appeal.

SOTTO VOCE

PROBABLY IT IS MY LACK of education, but I cannot ever make head or tail out of the serious articles and editorials on the European situation. The serious writers feel that they cannot stoop to the use of ordinary English to discuss the European situation and must drag in a lot of Latin and French by the heels. It gives their egos a chance to run themselves before a popeyed proletarian.

I have written a serious article on the European situation that any of the better reviews or larger newspapers would be delighted to print, but I do not propose to let them have it. I am keeping it as a specimen of life in our times. It runs as follows:

"If Hitler thought that his Drang Nach Osten would succeed, clearly he had not reckoned with Der Tag, for obviously the cause belli was the fait accompli within the hegemony of Czechoslovakia; for was it not Bismarck who said: 'Et Tu, Brute,' and 'frotter in re'? The gaucheries of the Austrian upstart may have a picturesque quality intriguing to the proletariat, but, bien entendu, the petit bourgeoisie of central Europe were entitled, de jure, to something better than a statement, ipso facto and ex tempore, from a man who obviously was not compos mentis. The reductio ad absurdum of the present Wacht am Rhein is, to say the least, a table d'hot."

You can find paragraphs exactly like that in any of the better papers, but you will never find anyone who can explain them to you. So long as they have a dash of German, a sprinkling of Latin and a gentle perfume of French, they carry real authority with them.

FOCAL INFECTION

A LOT OF PEOPLE, thousands, hundreds of thousands, indeed, have come to me with tears in their eyes and asked me if something couldn't be done to stop the destruction of trees on our boulevards and wild lands about the city. No, my friends, nothing can be done. There is a civic rage for destruction of trees, a vital hunger gnawing at the vitals of our city fathers. I think myself it is a kind of disease and, physicians tell me, it probably proceeds from a focal infection of some sort.

The diagnosis must be clear now to anyone who studies civic anatomy. If the City of Victoria is sick you can definitely trace it to the inflamed tonsil on Pandora Avenue, which unquestionably is spreading poison through the whole body politic. Until it is removed, with all the brutality and carnal ugliness that it represents, we shall never have real civic health. A number of us better surgeons are ready to perform the operation with dynamite any time the patient permits it. Without anaesthetic.

IN CASE YOU DON'T KNOW

Although you associate them with the Sahara Desert, one-third of the world's camels are found in Russia. . . . "Twas ever thus: Whistler painted the portrait of his mother, which became famous all over the world. But a still greater artist, Rembrandt, painted the portrait of his father (on view these many years at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts) and it hardly got a tumble. . . . Spring fever isn't a psychological laziness, but an actual disease that occurs when the body's store of calcium is depleted, lowering one's capacity for work. . . . How times have changed: At the end of the War Between the States, San Francisco had 25 times the population of Los Angeles.

WHEN ATTACKED BY A BURGLAR

From Ottawa Journal

One of the weak things about Munich was that it ignored Russia; snubbed and drove her farther out of Europe. That mistake is being realized now, with both England and France evidently glad to make common cause with Moscow—and rightly. When a man is attacked by a burglar, he ought not to be particular about the religion or political philosophy of anybody who seems disposed to come to his assistance.

ELECTRICITY VS. OIL

To the Editor:—Re apparent determination of some members of the council to substitute buses for street cars, in spite of the recent referendum favoring street cars, I would set out a few sound reasons for objection for said substitution:

1. First is the fact that the electric power required is and can be produced from hydro facilities within the province.
2. Electricity is free from objectionable poisonous odor and soiling of our streets, accompanying use of gasoline.
3. Unit carrying capacity of buses is much inferior.
4. Exhaustion of oil is a factor to be considered, too.

There can be no doubt that oil wells are exhaustible and that oil is specially adaptable to diesel engines. Neither is there any doubt that electricity is specially adapted to railways. Why should not Canada, having both, develop them for fitness use, instead of sending $83,000,000 away in 18 months ending September 30, 1938, for oil products, and why not preserve oil for what it is best adapted. A reliable Texas report states that Texas produces 40 per cent of the world's 37 per cent.

The usurpation of public roads by motor cars has a disastrous effect on publicly-owned railways.

Detach oneself from all sordid national or citizen interest or prejudice and calmly view the transportation conditions in both Canada and the United States. One finds a fixed and enormous investment in a mode of railway transport involving a tremendous mine by both government and government funds, being undermined by both government and private corporations, the governments in expenditures on smooth surface roads which the private motor corporations avail themselves of by using an offensive vanishing oil motive power, escaping the cost of the roads which they practically monopolize, creating a world life loss of anywhere from 50,000 to 70,000 or more persons per annum, plus anywhere from 14 to 30 times as many more injured.

All this in the face of oil and hydro power resources in Canada waiting development, whilst our unemployed and relief for them of a miserable kind is becoming an intolerable burden on taxpayers. JOHN DEAN.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

To the Editor:—I always like to hand a man his flowers while he is living. I am aware of the fact that we all get too many thorns in this world.

When you say anything about "the good old days" many who do not know anything about them like to take it as a joke. I am glad to say that I have had the privilege of living in the days of real homes, when they meant more than just a filling station to get something to eat and a place to sleep a few hours, as many of them are today.

Many living at the present time can look back with many pleasant memories to the good days, of real homes, the days when our mothers and fathers worked and strived to make home a place that would be so attractive that their sons and daughters could look back in after years to a real "Home Sweet Home," where life was a pleasure, and where they received advice that would help them in after years.

If the present generation could be taught that life means more than just seeking pleasure, there would not be so many on relief today. Many are taught in home that the world owes them a living. Many today are living the lives of the butterfly, flitting from flower to flower and not striving to help themselves.

THAT "CLEAN UP"

To the Editor:—Is it in the interests of public health to dump excavated material from the sewer holes onto a public byway? I am referring to the roadway running along the bottom end of Victoria West Park, leading from Esquimalt Road to the Tyee Road. During last week I noticed some of the city employees cleaning out the manholes around Victoria West; later, on this same day, I walked along this thoroughfare and was both surprised and disgusted to see this filth deposited on the road. Quite a goodly number of Victoria West pedestrians use this road to walk into town, and not only is this a menace to health but a poor example of the city's annual slogan, "Clean Up."

Also I would like to call attention to a couple of bad spots in the sidewalk that badly need repairing.

From Windsor Star

The best service that all of us can perform for our country and for democracy at this time is to keep on doing our individual jobs. The stronger our national position, in a business way, the better we shall be able, in case trouble comes, to provide our share in aid of freedom. There are many things that need doing in Canada in both a private and public way. Governments and business men who desire to contribute the utmost in service should not hesitate to proceed with their plans. Only in this way can the necessary degree of public confidence be maintained.

EASTER DAY

April's showers have washed the sky
Until it's fresh and blue;
White fleecy clouds hung-out to dry,
The wind is blowing through;
Lilies lift their lovely heads,
Daffodils are gay;
Nature's donned a joyous gown,
For it is Easter Day.
PHYLLIS MABER.

Musical Arts Had Year of Much Progress

Mrs. Allon Peebles Retires From Its Presidency

Presentations of an engraved silver entree dish from the executive and of a beautiful basket of flowers from the membership marked the retirement, last night at the annual meeting of the Victoria Musical Society, of Mrs. Allon Peebles from the presidency after three years in office.

The gathering was held at "Roseboro," Moss Street, the home of Mrs. J. O. Cameron, the honorary president, and was well attended. The following new members were added to the board: Mrs. F. G. Aldous, Mr. William Anderson, Miss Lora Blake, Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Miss H. E. Brumpton, Dr. W. W. Bryce, Miss Beatrice Griffin, Mrs. John Kyle and Mrs. G. A. McCurdy. Other board members are Mr. Reginald Cox, Mrs. E. W. Hetherington, Mrs. R. D. McCaw, Miss Dorothy Parsons, Mrs. J. O. Cameron and Dudley Wickert.

Excellent reports of the year's progress were presented by Miss Lora Blake, the secretary, Mrs. S. H. Frame, the treasurer, and by the presidents of three junior branches of the society including the juveniles, intermediates and the auxiliary. An interesting discussion took place, and it was decided to raise the membership fee slightly and to hold five concerts a year.

The musical program, provided by the juvenile, intermediate and auxiliary branches of the society, was much enjoyed, and included the following numbers: Juveniles—Vera Weed, piano, "First Movement of Moonlight Sonata" (Beethoven); Barbara May Lipsey, reading, "The Obstructive Hat"; Elaine Hall, vocal solo, "Tales of the Vienna Woods" (Strauss); Intermediates—Marie Vowles, violin, "Moto Perpetuo" (Ossip Schmarlin); and Minor Opus 26, No. 1, (Chopin); Elaine Basanta, vocal solo, "Maidens of Cadiz" (Delibes). Auxiliary—Don Wilson, piano, "Dance" (Debussy); John Pepper, violin, "First Movement of the Sonata in D" (Beethoven); and Patsy Swift, vocal solo, "Sea Moods" (Mildred Land-Tyson).

Mrs. Peebles was warmly thanked for her energetic and artistic leadership in the presidency, and tribute was also paid to Miss Lora Blake, who was presented with a beautiful bouquet of violets on her retirement from the office of secretary. Mrs. Peebles was made honorary vice-president.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Peebles entertained the gathering to refreshments.

WEDDINGS

FELL-HURIE

WINNIPEG (CP)—Edith Winnifred Hubie and Arthur Thornton Fell, son of Mrs. T. Fell of Victoria and the late Thornton Fell, were married at St. George's Church here Tuesday. Canon Henry D. Martin performed the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fraser Hubie, wore a frock of navy blue sheer with touches of dusky pink. Her hat was a disc model of navy straw, finished with a veil tied at the back. She carried Adeline roses. Following a honeymoon in Seattle and a visit to Victoria, Mr. and Mrs. Fell will reside in Montreal.

Queen Mary Exhibits Her Embroideries

LONDON (CP)—Mrs. Vincent Jassie, wife of Canada's High Commissioner, opened one of the most interesting exhibitions recently held in London. The Royal Amateur Art Society's show is unique, for it usually contains not only treasures lent by royalty, but frequently some of her handiwork.

Queen Mary was among the exhibitors, showing a cushion cover worked in gros-point. Usually she prefers to work sets of embroidery, chair seats or matching cushions, but this piece was in soft shades of pale blue and pink. Her work is very fine and she never uses an embroidery frame.

Provincial W.M.S. In Convention

B.C. Presbyterians Hear Reports at Mainland Meeting

VANCOUVER—Proof of the wide and ever-increasing scope of work accomplished by various branches of the British Columbia Provincial of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church is evidenced by the total of $5,327.01 in contributions for the past year from the 2,187 members. This was announced in the report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. Gourlie at yesterday's session of the 25th annual meeting in Central Church.

Interior and outlying districts are steadily increasing, with Kamloops-Okanagan Presbyterial reporting four auxiliaries; Kootenay six, Victoria eight and New Westminster 23 with two associates.

In the Young Women's work, Victoria's contributions were $175.62, and Westminster, $483.55.

GIRLS' WORK

The Girls' Organizations reported increase in membership in all presbyteries. Two new Mission Bands have been formed at Newton and Hunter, and Murrayville won the banner contest for memorization by 54 children, 100 per cent correct.

Over 9,048 pieces of reading material have been distributed throughout the year, and supplies were distributed to the total of $418.90.

There are at present 978 subscriptions to Glad Tidings.

In her presidential address, Mrs. R. M. Thomson urged the members to have faith in the work they are doing so that they may rouse the interest of others in carrying on the vital task of missionary service. She asked the various societies to check up on the small duties and regulations which combine for a smooth-working society.

At the opening session Tuesday evening, the two guests from Toronto, Mrs. A. R. McMurich and Mrs. Daniel Strachan, addressed the meeting. Mrs. McMurich, first vice-president and secretary for India, told of the missionary work in that country, mentioning the newest venture, a kindergarten training school.

Mrs. Strachan, second vice-president and treasurer, urged the meeting to take special notice of giving to missions, which are the centre of aid in far-flung areas.

Noted Authoress Flays Cosmetic Habit

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Dorothy Canfield Fisher termed cosmetics "one of the worst and most vulgar forms of triviality" today.

The Arlington, Vt., author, told the annual Inland Empire Education Association convention "this exaggerated, decadent, late Roman Mania for licking up and lacquering our bodily surfaces has become a major exploitation of American women."

The next business meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 11, instead of Wednesday, April 10, when the annual banquet will be held; also the grand lodge officers will pay their usual visit.

The W.A. of St. Albans met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Naysmith, Asquith Street. The meeting was well attended and Mrs. Hopley was welcomed as a new member. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Swan, through illness, Mrs. Comley presided. Mrs. Harris, Diocesan secretary of Little Helpers, spoke of her work which this branch hopes to reorganize shortly. Mrs. Comley was chosen as "Extra Cent" secretary. Mrs. Tudor offered her home for the May meeting.

The W.A. Pro Patria annual Vimy tea and card social held at Spencer's tea-rooms was a pronounced success. The tea tables were prettily decorated with daffodils. Bridge was played and the following were the winners: First prize, Miss H. Hankey; second, Mrs. G. Aldridge; third, Mrs. J. Smith; consolation, Mrs. J. W. Berry; tombola, Mrs. E. Hibbert. Mrs. Cherorof presided in the absence of Mrs. D. Muir through illness and was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Mrs. B. Ripley. The W.A. held its monthly meeting in the W.I. Hall on Port Street on Tuesday.

Mrs. Cherorof, the president, was in the chair. One new member, Mrs. M. Mundie, was added to a growing list.

The monthly business meeting of Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E., was held at headquarters yesterday, the regent, Mrs. A. E. Hopkins, presiding. Mrs. Hopkins was appointed delegate to the provincial annual meeting to be held in Vancouver April 25. Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps will attend as standard bearer. Plans were completed for a rummage sale on April 15, under the convenship of Mrs. Mainprize. Mrs. C. T. Wigglesworth will have charge of decorating soldiers' graves for Easter. A framed picture of the Royal family will be presented to Quadra School Thursday, the regent, standard bearer and members of the executive attending. After the business meeting, tea was served by Mrs. Drummond Hay, Mrs. C. J. Wigglesworth and Mrs. J. R. Phillips, the table being centred with a basket of pink tulips.

ALBANIAN PRINCE BORN

BUDAPEST (AP)—"It's a boy," said a telegram sent for Queen Geraldine of Albania today to her sister, Mrs. Andres von Baghy in Budapest.

But telegrams also were being sent for Mrs. Von Baghy, among them one to the Queen at Tirana saying, "It's a girl." The sisters became mothers the same day. Queen Geraldine's son is Albania's crown prince.

BELMONT Y.P.S.

The annual banquet will take place on Thursday, April 20, at 6. The committee in charge is: Kay Henderson, Dora Schwindt, Helen Parker and Kay Knott, and the program will be arranged by Audrey Morrison, Horace Lindsay and Arthur Zala.

Honor Guild Worker On 88th Birthday

Mrs. Alex. Garden Is Tea Guest of Centennial Guild

Mrs. Alexander Garden yesterday celebrated her 88th birthday, and in her honor the Centennial Ladies' Guild held a tea in the Sunday school room. The affair was also attended by the following church members over 80 years of age: Mrs. Crowe, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Brethour, Miss Burridge, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie, Mr. Kirby, Mr. McVoy and Mr. Ralf.

Mrs. A. Reid assisted the guild president, Mrs. W. McCague, in receiving the guests. The tea tables were attractive with daffodils and hyacinths. Those contributing to the programme were: Mrs. J. Meston and Mrs. Corry, vocal solos; B. Oldfield and Miss Joyce Boulter, pianoforte solos, and a violin solo by Master L. Boulter, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. P. Green.

AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

In the evening, Mrs. Garden was "at home" to her friends at an enjoyable gathering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. Townsend, 1320 Stanley Avenue, with whom she lives, and was the recipient of birthday letters, cards, telegrams, gifts and a profusion of flowers.

Mrs. Townsend, with her daughter, Miss Marietta Townsend, assisted Mrs. Garden in receiving the guests. The rooms were lovely with fragrant spring flowers, the gifts of friends. A buffet supper was served, the lace-covered table being attractive with tulips and daffodils, and the birthday cake held the place of honor.

BORN IN SCOTLAND

Mrs. Garden was born on April 5, 1851, in Aberdeen, Scotland, on Lord Aberdeen's estate. Before her marriage, in 1873, in Scotland, she was Miss Mary Annand. Mr. and Mrs. Garden came to Canada in 1911, and settled in Calgary for 10 years, coming to Victoria in 1921. It was two years later, in 1923, that Mrs. Garden died in Victoria. Of her eight children, six are living. Mrs. M. Townsend, Mrs. B. Galle, 562 Sumas Street; Mrs. I. Saringer, Alameda, Cal.; Mrs. J. Campbell, Banff, Scotland; Rev. John Garden of Ryerson United Church, Hamilton, Ont., and J. H. Garden, Calgary. There are 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Garden, despite her age, takes an active part in the Ladies' Aid and Women's Missionary Society of Centennial Church.

The Esquimalt subdivision of the Catholic Women's League will hold a sale of home-cooking on Saturday morning. Members are asked to hand in their nomination papers on Friday, if possible.

Get Up at Night?

If your sleep is disturbed by getting up several times at night, if you experience burning and soreness, if your back is lame and sore, you may get relief by taking Dr. Pierce's A-Muric. Mrs. T. Hingham, 532 Hill St., London, Ont., says: "Dr. Pierce's A-Muric Tablets gave me relief. My kidneys caused me so much annoyance: the secretions passed too frequently and were irritating and burned. My back would be so lame and sore at times I could hardly get up or down. After using 'A-Muric' I was entirely relieved of all the discomfort." Ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's A-Muric today.

B.C. Golf To Get Under Way

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

WHEN MUZZ PATRICK, one of Victoria's best-known athletes, got into that little party with Eddie Shore the other night during a Stanley Cup hockey game between the New York Rangers and Boston, it apparently was quite an affair, according to Jack Miley of the New York Post. And Miley should know all about fights. Remember the time Dizzy Dean took a poke at him during the baseball training season in Florida?

Describing the Patrick-Shore affair, Miley said: "If Joe Louis is looking around for somebody to fight, somebody who will really give him a battle and not swoon with the first punch, he can skip those antiquated Ropers and screwy Galentos. I've got the man for him. He doesn't even claim to be a boxer, although he's the handier with his dukes than most of those rambling wrecks you see around today. He's a young hockey player; his name is Murray Patrick, and he unveiled a better brand of fistfights in the Ranger-Bruin game at the Garden last night than the joint has seen in months.

"Nor did Murray pick himself any suckers, like some of the blind and lame guys who have been allowed to fight in our town lately. He chose the toughest cookie in his racket, Eddie Shore, and nearly knocked his brains out. Now Eddie is a fellow who commands plenty of respect among those disc derbies. Not so many years ago he put Ace Bailey of the Toronto Maple Leafs permanently out of hockey by the simple process of fracturing his skull. It was an accident, of course, and Eddie helped hold an all-star benefit for his victim, but this is scant consolation to poor Ace, even now.

"Another player that Shore nearly ruined was Phil Watson, the Ranger centre. Eddie bashed him over the head with his stick and he was carried off to the hospital with a brain concussion that nearly meant curtains. Shore has roughed up more opponents than he can remember, he has dealt out countless black eyes, bloody noses, contusions, abrasions, etc. It has always been Eddie's policy to play for keeps, and along with old Ching Johnson, he is regarded by the fans as the rowdiest gent in a violent pastime.

"When a free-for-all started between the Rangers and Bruins, Murray chose Shore. This is flying in the face of Providence, any way you regard it. But apparently Murray, just a rookie who hadn't been told where Eddie buries his dead, knew no better. He whipped off his big gauntlets, hauled off and punched the puss off of the Boston bruiser. Shore was lucky to escape with a fractured nose and a torn right eye. He's all done up in adhesive tape this morning and looks like an Egyptian mummy.

"Watson hit me with the butt end of his stick, the big bum," Eddie said in the Bruin dressing room after the game. "I hit him with my right fist," countered Murray. "I don't need a stick to whip the likes of him!" Old Lester Patrick, Ranger coach and pappy of Murray, muttered: "Tch, tch! I don't approve of such ungentlemanly tactics. Hockey is a game of skill and science and such rowdiness is to be deplored. I must remember to speak with Murray about this when the Stanley Cup playoffs are over; the lad lets his animal spirits get the best of him. Tch, tch!" But there was a twinkle in the old gaffer's eye and an ill-concealed grin on his kisser as he spoke. You could tell he was proud of the kid.

"Young Murray is scarcely a Sonja Henie on those blades and sometimes the Garden are lights get in his eyes, causing him to lose track of the skittering puck at the most crucial moments. But there is no doubting his moxie, particularly after the way he belted the Bruin bully down to his

Leading Shotmakers of Province Seek Amateur Title at Oak Bay Friday

British Columbia's crack amateur golfers will trek over the links of the Victoria Golf Club tomorrow to open their bids for the provincial amateur championship. First day will be confined to the 36-hole qualifying round and deciding the first holders of the new Hamber trophy for four-man club teams.

When the entry list was closed last night, it was found 85 had entered, including 41 from out-of-town points.

Junior golfers will be in the foreground tomorrow, the youngsters playing in the 36-hole medal round, with the leading scorer earning himself a trip east for the Canadian championship in July. Junior club champions are entered from Cowichan, Powell River, Macaulay Point, Victoria, Uplands, Glen Oaks, Point Grey, Marine Drive and Gorge-Vale clubs.

Saturday will see the opening of match with two rounds. Quarter and semifinals are slated for Sunday with the 36-hole final on Monday. Don Gowan, member of the Point Grey Club, will go into the tournament as defending champion. Other strong contenders from Vancouver will be Ken Black, Bill Charlton, Frank Willey, H. Morrison and Jack Fraser.

Bellak-Hazi Perform Here

World's Leading Table Tennis Players at Crystal Garden April 11 and 12

Final arrangements have been made by the Victoria Table Tennis Association for the Bellak-Hazi exhibition, which will be held at the Crystal Garden on April 11 and 12.

The followers of table tennis will remember seeing Laszlo Bellak in Victoria last year with Viktor Barna, when an excellent exhibition was given, showing the fine points of the game, which is being widely played throughout the city. Bellak is accompanied on this trip by Tibor Hazi, the present Hungarian champion, who was also a semi-finalist in the last world championships. Hazi holds a good record, his latest victory being over Sol. Schiff, No. 1 ranking United States player. He is also a member of the world champion Hungarian Swaythling Cup team. He is a right-handed player, using orthodox strokes.

Coupled with Bellak, he recently won the U.S. doubles championship. Since last appearing in Victoria, Bellak has made a trip around the world, playing in major tournaments. He is the holder of over 10 trophies in world competition and is the present U.S. open champion. Bellak is the showman of the game and his antics and accuracy in trick shots are pleasing to watch. Reserve-seat tickets are now on sale at Hocking and Forbes.

NEXT OPPONENT FOR JOE LOUIS—Perspiring Jack Roper, who got that way wielding a big saw on trees and stumps at his training camp at Ojai, Calif., holds up a fist he intends to use on Joe Louis, April 24, in Los Angeles. Most critics feel the ancient Roper will need that saw to lift Joe's crown.

Amateur Hockey

Kimberley and Port Arthur Battle Again Tonight; Oshawa Beats Verdun

Form reversals are becoming a matter of course in Canada's amateur hockey playdowns. Both in the east and west sectional junior and senior finals have been first one team and then the other take a turn at winning.

Oshawa Generals did an about face last night by defeating Verdun Maple Leafs 6 to 1 in the second game of the eastern junior final. Beaten 2 to 1 in the opener at Montreal, Generals had little difficulty with the Quebec champions at Toronto and are favored to retain their eastern title in the deciding game tomorrow and advance into the Memorial Cup finals.

Billy Taylor, brilliant centreman, sparked Generals to their comeback victory. He tallied once and assisted in two other goals as his team jumped into an early lead and increased it in every period.

SENIOR PLAY

Senior clubs swing back into action again tonight at Saskatoon and Montreal. In the west, the game—Port Arthur Beavers can clinch a place in the Allan Cup finals by defeating Kimberley Dynamiters. The lakehead club has won two of the three games in the best-of-five series.

Montreal Royals are favored to retain Toronto Goodyears in an eastern final. Defeated at home in the opener of the best-of-five round, Royals won handily in Toronto and are expected to make better use of home ice tonight than they did in the first game.

The west's junior finalist can be decided tonight as Edmonton Roamers meet Brandon Elks at Winnipeg. Roamers, after scoring identical 6 to 0 victories over the Elks in the first two games, lost 5 to 0 in the third. Victory for Edmonton will send them against the Oshawa-Verdun winner.

Budge Wins Again

SANTA BARBARA, Cal. (AP)—Don Budge remained the master of Fred Perry today, after the latest episode in their cross-country professional tennis tour. Playing before an audience of 800, Budge let Perry get away with a 3-1 lead in the first set, then went on to win, 6-3, 6-3 last night.

Angling

By "CAP" THORSEN

Both tidal and non-tidal water fishing picked up well during the last few days and those fishermen who have a long Easter week-end ahead should find lots of sport awaiting them in several island lakes and streams and at Brentwood.

There was a fairly strong run of small springs in at Brentwood last Sunday and plenty of large grise around. Those anglers who were out on the Inlet early when the tide was high got the best catches. Several boat limits of fish—20 at this time of year—were taken in the morning. For the next three days high water will be around 7 and 8 in the morning and from then on until around noon should be best fishing hours. The grise are still taking abalones and small spoons, like a diamond No. 3, are catching the eye of the springs.

According to reports from Roger Monteith the south end of Shawnigan Lake came on well last Sunday and not a few fishermen got fine baskets. Cecil Heaton was one who had a 15-limit catch.

Monteith states that the majority of lakes should be showing up now. Kemp Lake is always a good bet and upper Thetis started producing fish last Sunday, with trollers doing best. One fisherman casting off the rocks in Prospect Lake Sunday took 13 trout. He was casting a worm on a plain hook and no weight. A. W. "Perky" Perkins took 10 fish out of those waters.

There are lots of trout in the upper reaches of Cowichan River, but they are not taking every day in the week. However, the fish are present and there is a chance that they might be in a biting mood over the week-end. There are some big ones, too. Dr. Ned Tait taking out one this week that weighed four pounds dressed.

From Oyster River comes reports that sea trout fishing in the Campbell and Courtenay Rivers is in full swing now.

Good catches of trout are coming into Port Alberni from Searling Arm, Sproat Lake, in a report from the up-land town today. In Central Lake trout fishing is improving. The fish are taking fly. Jack Scott-bucktail is the favorite, also bait and spinners. A heavy run of spawning steelhead is reported in Ash River.

Entries Open for Fencing Tourney

Entry blanks for the national fencing championships to be held at the Winnipeg civic auditorium, May 15, 16 and 17, can be held from Archie McKinnon, secretary of the B.C. Branch, A.A.U. of Canada, at the Y.M.C.A. The championships will be held under the auspices of the Manitoba Fencing Association.

SHAWN DANCERS HERE APRIL 17

Ted Shawn, whose experiment in presenting an all-male dancing company has met with outstanding success both on this continent and in England for the last five years, will bring his men dancers to Victoria on April 17, at the Royal Victoria Theatre. This group includes Barton Mumaw, Frank Overlees, Wilbur McCormack, Fred Hearn, Frank and John Delmar, Harry Coble and John Schubert, each of whom is an outstanding athlete, trained to artistry in the dance by Shawn himself. In throwing in their lot with Shawn, these young men have chosen to discipline not only their bodies but their minds and characters as well, and their life of hard work and Spartan simplicity on their hill-top farm, where they live when not on tour, is a strenuous training ground intellectually as well as physically.

With them, also, comes Jess Meeker, composer-accompanist of the musical setting of the program. In the splendid collaboration of Meeker and Shawn something unique in the art of the dance has been achieved, for the music and the dances were literally created together. The box office is open now at Terry's.

Miss J. A. Cann Retiring Soon

Has Taught Two Generations, and Likes the Present One

After 35 years' connection with two Victoria Colleges, Miss Jeanette A. Cann will retire from the post of professor of English and philosophy at the present college next month, at the end of the scholastic year.

Miss Cann came to Victoria from Yarmouth, N.S., in 1904, shortly after she had graduated from Dalhousie University with honors in philosophy.

Her teaching career began in the old Victoria High School building where she taught classes both of high school students and of first year university students attending the then Victoria College, affiliated with McGill University.

MISS J. A. CANN

Soon after her arrival the college started second-year university work, and she had the unusual job of instructing a class of just two students. The two were Major Cuthbert Holmes and the late Miss Cecilia Green, daughter of Senator R. F. Green.

When the University of British Columbia was founded at the end of the Great War, the affiliation with McGill automatically ended, and for a short period Victoria was without a college. During that time Miss Cann continued to teach high school classes.

Her connection with the high school ended with the foundation of the present Victoria College, affiliated with U.B.C.

Miss Cann has had the distinction in several cases of teaching two generations of the same family. She calls this "being a scholastic grandmother."

She does not share the opinion sometimes heard from older people that the present generation are not the qualities of the one before it.

"They are a very splendid lot of young people," she says. "I think they are more sensitive to what is going on in the world and to their coming responsibilities as citizens. Among the more thoughtful students there is arising a social consciousness which was very much lacking in the students of my own generation and of my early teaching days."

Miss Cann likes the friendliness of the present generation of students, and the way in which they push aside the barriers between themselves and their teachers.

Eager For Outdoor Holiday

Thousands Will Trek to Woods and Lakes for Long Week-end

All Victoria prepared today for the first great holiday of spring. For many the week-end will last from this evening until Tuesday morning, which means hundreds will leave town to visit in neighboring cities or enjoy outings to the woods, the lakes and the beaches after the winter months.

Tomorrow will see the first large groups of hikers on the roads, going into the hills and the lakes for their initial outing of the year. Hiking trousers, stout shoes and knapsacks were taken from winter storage today, and tomorrow morning, bright and early, the walkers will be on the road.

Cycling, too, is becoming popular as the years go by, and bicycle shop proprietors reported today their supply of wheels for hire has already been exhausted by reservation. Dozens of people of all ages will go cycling along the highways tomorrow.

The weather man wasn't any too kind this morning about weather forecasts. On the other hand there is nothing very gloomy in sight. Tomorrow will be mild, partly cloudy, with scattered showers.

The usual Holy Thursday crowd of Victorians left this afternoon for Seattle. Tomorrow another large crowd of Victorians will leave on a Seattle excursion, their places here being taken by an excursion party from Vancouver.

TO ATTEND CHURCH

The more devout tomorrow will attend special Good Friday services in city churches; remembering the deeply religious significance of the day.

Thousands of hot cross buns were sold in city stores today for

94th Birthday of Malahat Designer

Major J. F. Lenox MacFarlane Hale and Hearty After Eventful Life

Major J. F. Lenox MacFarlane, 3235 Pandora Avenue, who is known as "Father of the Malahat Drive," will celebrate his 94th birthday tomorrow. He is hale and hearty, has a ruddy face, erect figure and a twinkle in his eye.

Asked as to what he attributed his robust health and active mind after 94 active years, he grinned: "I've always made it a practice since I was a little boy on my grandfather's knee, never to take a strong drink before midday. And never anything but the best." He laughed. "My father wouldn't like that. He was a very proper man."

MAJ. J. F. L. MACFARLANE

"Aye, I've had many a good time in me life," he ruminated in a round Irish brogue. "And I'm not wishing to forget any of it." He settled back with his favorite pipe pulled in the right corner of his mouth, cupped in his left hand "a trick you learn in the army when you're carrying a gun" and added with a twinkle "and, by golly, there's life in the old boy yet!"

Born April 7, 1845, Huntstons House, County Dublin, Ireland, Major MacFarlane studied law at Dublin University and was graduated in 1866. On May 8, 1867, he was commissioned in the 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoon Guards, and in 1870 received his captaincy. A few years later, on the reorganization of the Auxiliary Garrison Artillery, he was appointed major of the 3rd Brigade South Irish Division, Royal Artillery, from which he retired after notable service in 1887.

In 1876 when he left the Dragoons, he was appointed justice of the peace and served as magistrate and poor law guardian in County Dublin for 22 years. After leaving the cavalry service, Major MacFarlane settled down to the one thing he loves best in the world, the breeding of hunters and steeplechases.

"I've spent most of my life on the outside of a horse," he mused. He recalled his horse-trading days "when I could wink an eye with the rest" and how he rode a famous steeplechaser called Waterford in the Douglas and Anglesea Hunt cups and almost made the Grand National.

When his family sold out in 1898, Major MacFarlane decided to make Canada his home, "sight unseen," and has never had cause to regret it. After five years in Alberta he settled in Mill Bay in 1903, devoting his time to fishing and hunting, and organized the Agricultural Association and Farmers' Institute at Cobble Hill.

When he first stepped foot on the island he saw the possibilities of a highway running from Victoria to the north of the island. He immediately agitated for this project, but everyone was skeptical as the government had tried unsuccessfully for 40 years to find a feasible route. Determined, he surveyed a line himself and continued his propaganda until the project was at last undertaken, resulting in the Malahat scenic drive, one of the greatest attractions on the Pacific coast.

In 1935, when his home was destroyed by fire, he came to Victoria to live.

These buns, which are now solely associated with the Christian celebration of Good Friday, are traceable to the remotest period of pagan history.

ANCIENT PAGAN CUSTOM

According to Encyclopaedia Britannica buns were offered by ancient Egyptians to their moon-goddess, and these had imprinted on them a pair of horns, symbolic of the ox at the sacrifice of which they were offered on the altar, or of the horned moon-goddess, the equivalent of Ishtar of the Assyro-Babylonians. The Greeks offered such sacred cakes to Astarte and other divinities.

In time the Greeks marked these cakes with a cross, possibly an allusion to the four quarters of the moon. The custom was practically universal and the early church adopted it.

Hospital Case of Rheumatism

The value of perseverance with Kruschen, in the treatment of some cases of rheumatism, is proved by this man's experience. He says:

"I was abroad for over seven years. When I returned I began to suffer from rheumatic pains—particularly in the feet and arms, and I was eventually taken into hospital, unable to move without groaning with pain. When I left the hospital after two months, I was somewhat better. I was recommended to take Kruschen Salts, have taken them continuously, and until now I am entirely free from pains. I would not be without my Kruschen Salts for anything."—M. B.

Two of the salts in Kruschen are effective solvents of uric acid the excess of which is decidedly injurious. They swiftly dull the sharp edges of the painful crystals—the cause of pain and stiffness—and convert them into a harmless solution, which is then expelled through the natural channels. (Advt.)

Taylor and Beery In Atlas Picture

The new outdoor drama "Stand Up and Fight," co-starring Wallace Beery and Robert Taylor, comes to the screen as one of the fastest action stories ever to be filmed. It opens tomorrow at the Atlas Theatre.

Unique in that it combines authentic historical background of a period and locale hitherto untouched in motion pictures with the sort of rapid-fire pace that made the westerns of silent days so perennially popular, "Stand Up and Fight" seems likely to be the forerunner of a cycle of stories of the kind.

WORLD HOCKEY SERIES WILL START TONIGHT

Leafs knocked off Detroit in the semi-finals last Saturday night. Harvey Jackson was fully recovered from the knee injury he suffered before the playoffs.

G. Parsons and Buzz Boll are still out. Parsons is just beginning to see partially through an eye that may never regain full sight because of an injury. Boll has crippled first one knee and then the other this season, and won't play until next fall.

But Pete Langelle has proved an able replacement for Parsons, working at centre-line, while Murph Chamberlain has moved to Parsons' wing.

Manager Conny Smythe said he was satisfied Leafs were ready to hold their own over the best of seven games grind. Coach Dick Irvin saw possibilities the Toronto team's speed might override the admitted edge held by the bruising Bruin defence.

With them the Leafs had precedent. They had met the Bruins four times in previous cup series and have beaten them every time.

TERROR OF BADLANDS—James Cagney has the toughest role of his career as "The Oklahoma Kid," which opens at the Dominion Theatre Friday.

Inside Story of Hospital Life

"Young Dr. Kildare" Is Presented On Oak Bay Screen

Drama and romance in the life of a struggling junior physician are entertainingly blended in "Young Dr. Kildare," which comes to the Oak Bay Theatre today.

The characters in all such stories because there is always the pulse-beat of human emotions in the atmosphere.

The atmosphere of life in the walls of a great general hospital is brought to the screen with effective power. This is the inside that is known only to the staff surgeons, the nurses, internes and the police reporters.

Lew Ayres as young Dr. Kildare is human and natural in a role which he plays with artistic restraint. Lynne Carver handles the romantic lead with technique. Lionel Barrymore as the grizzled surgeon gives a performance entirely in accord with Barrymore tradition.

Buffalo Bill Is Revived Again

"Outlaw Express," Stirring Drama of West at Columbia

Buffalo Bill comes to life again in Universal's stirring drama of the old west, "Outlaw Express," which opened at the Columbia Theatre today.

It is a story of pony express days in the year 1860, and stars Bob Baker in the role of a postal inspector who finally succeeds in destroying the band of outlaws who have been way-laying and robbing the express riders.

One of the principal characters in the production is "Bill Cody," a particularly daring pony express rider. Few remember that Buffalo Bill himself was a pony express rider and covered the very routes that are described in "Outlaw Express." Carlyle Moore portrays the famous plainsman.

Large Ensemble In Symphony

The Victoria Symphony Orchestra will give its inaugural concert at the Royal Victoria Theatre on April 12.

This organization of 55 pieces, one of the largest ever assembled here, has been in rehearsal for the past 12 months. Reports from a few critics privileged to attend a recent practice are unanimous that music lovers will be delightfully surprised at the quality and scope of this group.

Film Depicts Unselfish Deeds

"Little Orphan Annie," Paramount Feature, Opens at Plaza

It will give your heart a lift to go to the Plaza Theatre and see Paramount's new comedy drama, "Little Orphan Annie," which had its local premiere there today.

Throbbing with the unselfish deeds of the title character—whose doings in the picture are along the same lines of those of the famous comic strip character created by Harold Gray—this is the sort of filmfare which any moviegoer enjoys. Ann Gillis, who found high favor with moviegoers when she appeared as Becky Thatcher in "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," brings the favorite of the "funnies" to life on the screen.

In the supporting cast are such favorite players as Bob Kent, handsome young actor who is seen as Annie's prize fighter friend, and June Travis, who supplies romantic interest with him.

Young Mickey Rooney, who in the past has "stolen the picture" from many a famous star, comes into his own as a full-fledged star himself. Rooney makes his first solo-starring appearance in the title role of Mark Twain's classic tale of boyhood joys and sorrows, "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," the picture now at the Capitol Theatre.

People of the Philippines

4—FILIPINO CUSTOMS

Now we come to the main part of the Philippine population, the gentle, good-natured folk who are true Filipinos. They make their living largely by farming, and are peaceful in their ways of life.

Filipinos take many baths. Often they bathe two or three times a day. They also keep their clothing neat and clean.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

Remember my wedding dress, Albert? How do you think I'm going to look in this year's short skirts?"

Boots and Her Buddies

By Martin

In cities, Filipino men are apt to be dressed like white men who live in hot climates. They wear light-colored clothes to keep from suffering in the blazing sunshine.

In a village, the Filipinos often have colorful costumes. A man may be dressed in knee-length pants, made of red cotton cloth. His shirt is not likely to have a collar, but it is sure to have a tail, and it is common in some places for the tail to hang outside the trousers. Broad-brimmed straw hats and sandals are widely worn in the country.

Filipino women are fond of one-piece dresses without belts. The dresses hang from the shoulders down to the ankles. On feast days, the women may put on black aprons, and perhaps also red coats made of cotton cloth.

Sometimes in a city, but more commonly in villages and in country parts, the water buffalo is to be seen lumbering along, pulling a cart. The driver guides the animal by pulling a rope rein, fastened to its nose. Water buffaloes do not move fast, hardly two miles an hour, but they are strong and can pull big loads.

Filipino boys and young men take part in many sports. They play baseball, and are rather good at it. They also like tennis and handball.

Less to be praised is the sport of cock-fighting. On some of the islands there is hardly a village which does not have a cockpit.

There are up-to-date homes in the Philippines where the families have furniture very much like ours. In others there is a small amount of furniture including benches, tables and simple beds. Some homes, however, have little furniture and no chairs; people seat themselves on the floor, or perhaps we may better say on their heels. Members of the family rest their plates at dinner time on their laps or on the floor. In some sections, the plates are made of banana leaves. There is no need to wash dishes in homes where banana leaves are employed—the housewife just throws the plates away.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

1. What do the men in the bridal party wear for a formal church wedding in the evening?
2. Does the bride's mother wear a hat during the reception if it is held at her home?
3. Does she wear a hat if the reception is at a hotel or club?
4. When a bride is married in a street dress, does she wear a hat?
5. If the marriage is to be in a parsonage, may the bride and groom go to the parsonage together?

What would you do if—
You are a girl who has been asked to be a bridesmaid, and you do not like the color the bride has asked you to wear—
(a) Tell her you don't like it?
(b) Refuse to be in the wedding?
(c) Wear it and say nothing?

- Answers
1. Full evening dress.
2. No.
3. She may or may not, as she chooses.
4. Yes.
5. Yes.

Best "What Would You Do" solution—(c). This is the bride's show—and you are only playing a minor role. So do as she asks.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have been married to a frigid human being for the last 18 years. She has no love, no affection for anyone. She can murder your reputation and character and think nothing of it, and she ruins every party we go to for me and all others by her fault-finding. I have done my best in every way to get along with her. I tried it with flowers, with candy, with shows, with parties, with bricks, and finally with the "understanding" women. Believe me, sister, I am stuck with an empty carcass that has no love, no soul, nothing but a good tongue and a good pair of legs to follow me around for new material to nag about. Would you advise a specialist to see if she is all there, or should I just grin and bear it? If you know of any sure cure for the above, please come across with it, as it would be the greatest blessing to humanity.

WELL STUCK.

Answer: If anyone knew how to change a cold, selfish nagging woman into a warm-hearted, sweet-tempered, companionable one, he would, indeed, bestow the greatest of all blessings upon innumerable poor suffering husbands. But, alas, no miracle-worker has yet been born who has had the skill to perform this feat. Scientists have tracked germs to their lairs and conquered them. They have cut out malignant growths that were poisoning the very streams of life and brought back health to the afflicted. But no one has ever found out what makes a mean woman act the way she does or anything to do about it.

This is cold comfort, I know, but you are asking for the truth. After you have tried flowers and chocolates and shows and parties and bricks there are no more shots left in your locker, and all you can do is to accept your fate with what philosophy you can and try to find as many outside interests as possible.

But I don't recommend the Understanding Woman as a remedy. You are apt to fall in love with her and realize more acutely all that you have missed, and that will add a sorrow's crown of sorrow to you.

DEAR MISS DIX—Do you believe a girl of 21 should marry a boy of 16? We are deeply in love and have been going together for several years.

SALLY.

Answer: Don't be a cradle-snatcher. A boy of 16 is nothing but a child, while a girl of 21 is a mature woman. If you want to marry, pick out a man, not an infant. Such a marriage would wreck both of your lives.

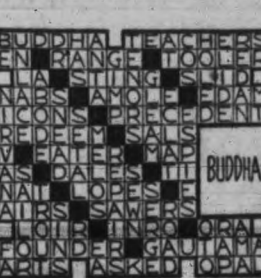

DOROTHY DIX.

The group of voluntary workers are commencing their canvass this week of old members, and the outlook for the coming season appears excellent. On the basis of the record for the last two years, and in the hope that the membership will grow still further, the committee has been given the privilege of choosing one of the three artists for 1939-40 season before the campaign has even started.

Both the secretary, Mrs. Duncan McBride, E6826, and the treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Walsh, E2275, will give any further information about the association to prospective members, and an office for headquarters during the campaign will be opened next week.

"If Shore inadvertently bumped into a Ranger, he tipped his helmet 'politely' and murmured, 'Sorry, old chap.' You'd never know Eddie was the same guy, before and after taking the Patrick pounce. He came in like a lion and went out like a lamb. Murray'll probably catch hell Thursday night up in Boston for this, but look at all the fun he had!"

The Royal Visit

Issue Orders On Type of Gloves

In Toronto Men to Wear Grey and Women White When Presented to King

TORONTO — Gentlemen will wear grey gloves and women white gloves when presented to King George VI and Queen Elizabeth during the Royal Visit to Toronto next month. It was announced yesterday by the Lieutenant-Governor's office.

While either street-length or floor-length dresses are in order for women, it has been suggested that street-length might become the rule.

CALGARY — The finance sub-committee of the central management committee, in charge of arrangements for Their Majesties' visit May 26, has decided to seek two-thirds of the reception cost from the Alberta government.

LONDON — Chief Constable Albert Canning, who directs Scotland Yard's campaigns against spies and Irish Republican Army terrorists, yesterday has been appointed to accompany the King and Queen to Canada.

OTTAWA — The Dominion Government will seek permission from Parliament to make a Royal seal for the use of the King should he prorogue Parliament or give Royal assent to any bills during his visit to the capital next month, according to notice of a bill placed on the Order Paper yesterday.

The Royal Seal of Great Britain may not be moved from the British Isles and the seal used by the Governor-General is distinctly Canadian and not suitable for use by the King himself.

OTTAWA (CP) — Organizations such as war veterans, Boy Scouts and Girl Guides anxious to take part in arrangements for the welcome of the King and Queen should offer their services to the head of their local municipality, according to a statement yesterday by the office of Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

By communicating with their local mayors, such organizations might ascertain how they could co-operate most effectively in the working out of local arrangements, it was suggested.

"It is expected that such offers will be very welcome and that a useful contribution can thus be made to the services of the community on this great occasion."

FINLAND FOREST POLICY SKETCHED

Main Portion of Country's Producing Timber Limits Privately Owned

The government of Finland owns approximately 40 per cent of the country's timber lands and produces only about 20 per cent of the annual output of timber products, Eino Saari, Ph.D., of the University of Helsinki, Suomi, told the Victoria section of the Canadian Society of Forest Engineers at a meeting last night.

While legislation existed giving the government control of cutting to maintain a permanent supply of growing stock, the authorities exercised little control over timber owners, he stated.

About 50 per cent of the timber lands, those in the more accessible locations, were owned by farmers, from whose holdings were taken timber which constituted the basis for approximately 80 per cent of Finland's export trade. No country in the world was so entirely dependent on its forest wealth, Mr. Saari stated.

Cutting was controlled directly by local boards elected by the farmers. Those boards hired trained technical men for the actual operation, he said, adding the government acted in an advisory capacity and assisted the boards financially by offering technical advice.

Mr. Mulholland extended a vote of thanks to the speaker. Mr. Saari, accompanied by Ahti Mecklin, director of the forest service at Helsinki, is at present on a tour of Canada and the United States, studying North American timber methods.

CANTATA AT ST. MATTHIAS

A devotional and inspiring performance of J. H. Maunders' cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," was rendered at St. Matthias' Church on Tuesday evening by an augmented choir conducted by Eric V. Edwards, L.R.S.M.

The choir showed excellent preparation, singing with confident attack and power in the dramatic portions of the cantata yet displaying exquisite phrasing, purity of tone and diction in the reflective numbers.

In the respective roles of tenor and bass soloists, James Oakman and Leslie Harnsworth were completely competent.

Mrs. Oakman was heard to advantage in the soprano airs which were sung with clear, round tone and G. Harris was convincing in the role of Pilate.

At the organ P. Hughes gave excellent support to choir and soloists. Rev. Alan Gardiner gave a short introductory talk in which he thanked the choir and members who had come to assist.

Gives Fortune To U.S. College
W. R. Murphy, Purchaser Of Sidney Estate, Makes $6,735,000 Donation

The most recent benefaction of Walter Patton Murphy, who last week purchased "Mira Loma," former Sidney estate of the late W. C. Nichol, one-time Lieutenant-Governor, for a summer home, is given feature prominence in this week's issue of the magazine Time.

The story concerns the donation by Mr. Murphy of $6,735,000 to Northwestern University for the construction of a new type engineering department.

The gift is to establish a mid-west institute of technology.

The article refers to Mr. Murphy as "the self-effacing tycoon" and 66-year-old bachelor. A one-time railroad brakeman and fireman who became rich by inventing and manufacturing corrugated steel freight-car ends, Mr. Murphy heads three corporations, including Standard Railway Equipment Co., owns the fabulous estate of the late William V. Kelley in Lake Bluff near Chicago, a cattle ranch in California, and a $1,000,000 square-rigged yacht. He is a good friend of James Roosevelt. Mr. Murphy is not so well known as his yacht or his estate, and the university had to look up the brief notice of him in Who's Who in order to identify him.

NEW ORIENTAL PROBE SOUGHT

Delegates from Victoria to the third national convention of the Twentieth Century Young Liberal Association in Ottawa will urge a new investigation of the illegal penetration of Orientals, with deportation for those who do not take out papers and pass tests showing themselves worthy of Canadian citizenship.

This was the substance of a resolution drafted at a meeting of the local club Tuesday night. R. Fairclough and Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bullock were selected delegates to the convention, which will meet April 21 and 22.

Support of a national flag for Canada and for equalization of freight rates between the East and the West was also urged.

Mrs. Bullock, as delegate to the women's meeting, was instructed to urge the expulsion of married women from gainful employment subject to the discretion of proper employment bureaus.

A discussion was held on the question of censoring immoral publications and those having material that insults lawful authorities.

Swimming and dancing will be the main orders for the evening. Two orchestras will be in attendance, and many features have been planned.

City Drafts Relief Brief

Document Drawn Up for Submission at Canadian Mayor's Conference

The adverse results to the city of the March, 1938, unemployment relief circular giving the sole power of deciding whether a relief recipient is "employable" or "unemployable," is emphasized in a concise brief prepared by the city for submission at the Ottawa convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities.

The document will be put forward on the city's behalf by Mayor J. Lyle Telford of Vancouver.

In addition to revision of that legislation, the city also seeks relief from payment of the cheque stamp tax, which, according to rough computations, costs the city between $2,000 and $3,000 a year.

In some detail the brief sets forth the hardships suffered by the city under the relief scheme, the resultant destruction of morale among those who are declared unemployable, the difficulties of administration under it and the virtual elimination of power to rehabilitate relief families by lump-sum grants.

Neutrath Says Hitler Master of History

PRAGUE (AP) — Baron Konstantin von Neurath lauded Adolf Hitler as a master of history on his arrival here yesterday to take up his new office as Hitler's protector for Bohemia and Moravia.

Von Neurath emphasized in a brief speech that he deemed it his duty to lead Bohemia and Moravia within the Reich's "living space" to prosperity.

"It is my ardent hope the Czech people recognize our and their mission," he said in pleading for "honest co-operation."
